Re: Rosario v. Smith, 07 Civ. 3611 (WHP)(JCF)
REQUEST FOR EXTENSION TO OBJECT TO R & R

Dear Your Honor:

On July 29, 2008, Honorable James C. Francis, filed his Report and Recommendation to Your Honor recommending my petition be denied and indicated I had (10) ten days from the date this decision was filed to submit my objections.

Your Honor, I am respectfully writing to request a 30 (thirty) day extension from the date this R & R was filed to submit my objections. Please note, I received this R & R on August 4th, approximately (6) six days from the date it was filed. (See: Copy of Envelope)

I respectfully make this request because I am a pro se litigant who requires additional time to file effective objections in a timely manner. It is also quite difficult to gain access to the Law Library in order to conduct my research. Due to the presented circumstances it will be difficult to file my objections in (4) four days.

Your Honor, in light of the above-mentioned reasons I ask that you please grant my request for an extension.

Application Granted
 SO ORDERED:

WILLIAM H. PAULEY III U.S. D.J.

Respectfully yours,
